

National

Rehabilitation Awareness Week

September 19th-25th

Please join the staff and friends of the Rusk Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine and NYU Langone Medical Center at several events recognizing National Rehabilitation Awareness Week, from September 19th - 25th. Our goal is to raise awareness of the many benefits of rehabilitation medicine and to celebrate the positive impact of rehabilitation services on those with disabilities and their loved ones.

For more information, please call Geoffrey Hall at 212.263.6093 or email at geoffrey.hall@nyumc.org
